FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOUISE HUGHES AND RICHARD FENCL JOIN EXECUTIVE SERVICE CORPS OF CINCINNATI'S BOARD OF TRUSTEES

CINCINNATI, OH, February 11, 2013 – Louise Hughes and Richard Fencl will join Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati's Board of Trustees effective February 13, 2013.

Hughes, who retired as Director, Senior Business Leader Community Engagement from P&G after 29 years with the organization, is currently Chair of the Cincinnati USA Regional Tourism Network and is Chair Emeritus of the Cincinnati USA Convention & Visitor's Bureau Board as well as a board member of the World Choir Games 501(c)(3). She is an alumna of Leadership Cincinnati (Class XXI), and a Past Chair of the Association of the Ohio Commodores.

Hughes earned her MBA degree from the Florida Institute of Technology and her B.A. degree from Louisiana State University. She served as a Major in the U.S. Army Reserves and Captain in the U.S. Regular Army.

Fencl has been an active member of ESCC since 1997 and is a former Board Chair. He has facilitated a number of Board Development and Coaching for Change workshops internally for ESCC members and has been project manager for several Board Development projects with various ESCC clients. Fencl retired from P&G as a Plant Manager after 36 years with the organization. He is actively engaged in the nonprofit community, serving as chair of his church's endowment fund trust. He also facilitates Great Decisions discussions for the Foreign Policy Association.

Fencl earned his MBA degree from the University of California, Berkley, and his B.S. degree in Marine Engineering from the Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, NY

Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati (ESCC) is dedicated to enhancing the lives of all individuals in the Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky area. The nonprofit organization, headquartered in Blue Ash, OH, gives back to the community by transferring knowledge and expertise through consulting, coaching and leadership development. The organization, founded in 1995, has served more than 500 local nonprofit organizations and currently has 130 members who volunteer their services.
