FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati adds two to staff

CINCINNATI, OH, April 29, 2013 – Roderick Trombley and Connie Hinitz will join Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati as Project Scoping Coordinator and Volunteer Connections Coordinator respectively. Both are new positions.

“Expanding our infrastructure will allow us to focus more clearly on service delivery to the community and to our volunteer workforce,” said Andrew J. McCreanor, Executive Director/CEO of Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati. “As we continue to implement our Community Benefit Business Model in 2013, we will leverage our assets to help strengthen nonprofits in this area.”

Trombley brings decades of experience in sales, marketing, project management and supply chain/logistics to ESCC having retired after 33 years with DuPont. He also has served as a consultant to other businesses. He earned his MBA degree in Business Management from University of Lowell, Lowell, MA and his B.S. in Chemistry from LeMoyne College, Syracuse, NY. Trombley also earned a Six Sigma Black Belt certification, as well as a Juran Quality Certificate.

Hinitz is a philanthropic sector management specialist with more than 30 years experience creating and implementing comprehensive nonprofit initiatives. She was most recently Administrator of the Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati, where she served for nearly 13 years. Hinitz earned her two M.A. degree in Community Planning and Geography from the University of Cincinnati and her B.A. degree in _____ from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati (ESCC) is dedicated to enhancing the lives of all individuals in the Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky area. The nonprofit organization, headquartered in Blue Ash, OH, gives back to the community by sharing knowledge and expertise through consulting, coaching and leadership development. The organization, founded in 1995, has served more than 550 local nonprofit organizations and currently has 150 members who volunteer their services.
